There are no right answers. Write how you speak.*

01 VOICE & TONE

01 Describe how SoulAdventure sounds in exactly four words.

02 Who does the brand sound like — a master teacher, a fellow traveler, a wise guide?

03 Where on this scale: more reverent / ceremonial ← — — → more warm / personal?

04 How formal is the language — academic, semi-formal, or conversational?

05 Is there lightness or humor anywhere in the brand, or is the tone always reverent?

06 Name 3 people — teachers, authors, speakers — whose voice feels closest to SoulAdventure's.

07 Name 1 voice in the wellness space that feels completely wrong. What specifically is wrong about it?

02 ALWAYS / NEVER RULES

08 What must every piece of SoulAdventure content always do?

09 What must every piece of SoulAdventure content never do?

10 Is fear-based language — scarcity, urgency, "don't miss this" — ever acceptable?

11 What is the hardest rule — the one that is never broken under any circumstance?

12 Is there content that must never be AI-generated — ceremony, teacher quotes, anything sacred?

13 Who signs off before anything publishes?

03 VOCABULARY

14 What do you call the people who attend — guests, participants, seekers, travelers, pilgrims?

15 What do you call a retreat — journey, pilgrimage, gathering, immersion?

16 What do you call the locations — sacred sites, power places, portals, destinations?

17 List 5 words you use constantly that feel authentically SoulAdventure.

18 List 5 words competitors overuse that feel hollow or off-brand.

19 "Transformation" — own it or avoid it?

20 "Healing" — own it or avoid it?

21 "Sacred" — always, sometimes, or sparingly?

04 NARRATIVE

22 Finish this sentence: "SoulAdventure exists because ____."

23 What story does the wellness retreat industry tell that SoulAdventure refuses?

24 What does SoulAdventure believe about sacred sites that most people don't understand?

25 What makes a teacher qualify for SoulAdventure — and what disqualifies someone immediately?

26 What makes a site qualify? What is the test?

27 What is the relationship between place, teacher, and participant — how do all three work together?

28 What happens at a SoulAdventure retreat that cannot happen anywhere else?

29 What does "luxury" mean in your context — how is it different from a five-star hotel?

30 Write the one sentence that says everything about SoulAdventure.

05 AUDIENCES

31 Paint a picture of your primary participant — not demographics, but where are they in their life when they find you?

32 What are they feeling the moment they decide to book?

33 What fear do they carry into day one?

34 What do they say when they get home?

35 Who is NOT your participant — who would you gently redirect?

36 Beyond participants, who else does SoulAdventure speak to — teachers, venue partners, media, investors?

37 How does the language shift for each group — or does it stay consistent?

06 FEELING

38 What should someone feel within 10 seconds of landing on a SoulAdventure page?

39 Name one brand — any industry — whose feeling or voice you want SoulAdventure to be compared to.

40 If SoulAdventure were a place and a time of day, what would it be?
